

A Hat for Grandma: A Knitting Story

Discussion Questions & Activities

1. What values does Amy demonstrate while making the hat for Grandma? See hints below:

Creativity
Courage (to take the initiative and try something new)
Courage (to ask for help)

Determination
Perseverance
Dedication
Attention to Detail

Hard Work
Cooperation
Patience

- a) How does Amy demonstrate each of them?
b) Can you think of a time when you applied these qualities to one of your projects?

2. Why is it important for Amy to ask Mom's help while making the hat?

Could she make such a beautiful hat without her?

3. How does Mom guide Amy to make the hat?
4. Why is it important for Amy to do a good job?
5. Why doesn't Amy give up when she is dropping so many stitches?
6. Why is it necessary for Amy to have patience?
7. Have you had a similar experience to Amy?

Steps to finding your own project:

Who do you want to make it for and why?

Why is this person special to you? Why do you think they'd like this project?

Come up with an idea for a project.

Is there anyone who can help you make it?

What will you do to encourage yourself not to give up?

